Yes, but not sure what to do about this though given the lack of direction. Seems like we are just moving the deck chairs around on a ship that could either be the Island Princess or the Titanic and we don't know which.

Subject: Pebble FEIS style/tone edits - next steps

Hi Folks – I think I have talked with key folks directly and if you need background, please go ahead and give me a call directly. Here's the way forward I discussed with OW (Brian, Russ) OGC (Heidi and Allison) and OFA (Rob and Marthea) to hopefully support R10 with minimal delays.

Knowing that Brittany Bolen has specific style/tone requirements to be consistent with OP-OFA letter writing guidance that I failed to completely catch during the drafting/reviews last week (my apologies for not catching these until late last Friday night – I was focusing more on the specific comments than the style), and Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP) with political leadership today, as soon as we hear what the leadership guidance is then we'll initiate a final review for style/tone consistent with the OFA style and consistent with the OW requirements for the 404 comments to be completed by COB Wednesday.

If anyone gets word on the outcome, let us know .

Thanks!
Cindy
